Conference attendee,

Thank you for your support. This document confirms your registration and admittance to our upcoming conference, Leading Our People Forward 2019, at Dale Hollow Lake State Resort Park on March 8th, 9th, and 10th.

The address of the State Resort is 5970 State Park Rd in Burkesville, Kentucky and resort lodging is available by phone at (270) 433-7431. There is a restaurant at the lodge. Dale Hollow Lake State Resort Park is currently holding all available rooms under the Identity Evropa name on a discount. Please note that the lodge will begin releasing unreserved rooms to the public on Friday, February 8th. Additional lodging can be found at the following nearby resorts.

Hendricks Creek Resort

Sulfur Creek Resort

Alpine Resort Burkesville

The Old Coe House Bed & Breakfast

Baymont Inn & Suites Albany

We would also recommend splitting nearby Airbnbs or Homeaways with your Identity Evropa chapter.

For those flying to attend the conference, we recommend arriving at Nashville International Airport (BNA) on Friday early afternoon and carpooling or renting a vehicle to travel to the venue.

In addition to this confirmation document, you will also receive an invitation to our event-only Slack server via your member email address. That server will be the hub for carpooling information, off-site and group lodging accommodations, and all of the up-to-the-minute updates for the weekend. Please make it easily accessible on your mobile device.

Schedule Overview

Check-in and reception, with hors d'oeuvre and a cash bar, will begin at the main conference hall at 5 PM on Friday. The conference will begin at 7:30 PM with announcements and essential commencement remarks.

Hot breakfast for all registrants will begin at 8:30 AM on Saturday morning followed by panel discussion at 10 AM.

General Admission registrants will be released to lunch, either at the on-site restaurant or off-site, at Noon. Patron Admission registrants and existing IE Patrons will be invited to join guest speakers for the Speakers Luncheon and open bar.

Our conference will continue with remarks from Advisory Counselors and Department Leaders in the afternoon, followed by banquet dinner for all registrants and a cash-bar. Our guest speakers and Executive Director Casey will conclude the conference on Saturday evening.

All registrants are invited to join us at an off-site, outdoors gathering on Sunday morning in Nashville which will culminate with a voluntary action.

Schedule information is subject to change and further updates will follow on the event Slack server.

Dress

Business casual attire (blazer or sport coat, dress shirt, chinos or a nice pair of jeans, and no tie is suitable) on Friday evening.

Suit and tie, or equivalent "Sunday best" for ladies, is required on Saturday evening.

Smart casual is recommended for the Sunday event and action.

Further updates will follow on the event Slack server.

Media

Identity Evropa will be filming the stage at various points throughout the conference. However, attendees' faces will not be filmed anywhere without express consent.

Merch

Most merchandise will be available with cash at the Sunday event only.

See you there,
