At what point in time? We need to know.

We also haven't been provided his information to run language about what the First Amendment doesn't allow.

I'm thinking through what I would give in a perfect world, and we'll see if we all agree on that or if I just have to decide myself what's appropriate.

But the right of assembly being something that does exist here, there's also very direct language in very well-established Supreme Court case law that says you don't have a right to commit crimes. You have a right to assemble, to talk, to have political views and speech, but not to be violent.

And so I can take the quotes right out of the cases, and that's a pretty simple instruction. And we can talk about whether or not the jury needs that at all because, as I said the other day, Elonis was decided very recently, incorporating First Amendment principles into criminal instructions. And I'm not so sure we need to tell them anything that's not incorporated in the instructions unless everybody agrees we should.

So that's sort of my current thinking.
Why don't we -- are they all here yet?
THE DEPUTY CLERK: We're missing five.

20 THE COURT: Five.

Well, then, I'm going to -- we have one moreDefendant's composites, I think, to go through with Detective

23 Pemberton.

24 Is that correct, Ms. Kerkhoff?

25 MS. KERKHOFF: We have the compilation video to go through with respect to the Defendant we did the board on.

And then we have one more Defendant to do both the board and 3 the compilation video.

THE COURT: Well, here's my question: Does it make sense to start discussing motion for judgment of acquittal, since we have some time on our hands?

And, principally, I guess I want to start by asking the Government what your view is about the inciting charge. I know you've seen my draft instruction. And I'm going to assume I'll be getting a motion for judgment of acquittal on 11 that particular count.

12 Is the Government going to be opposing that motion?13 MS. KERKHOFF: A motion for judgment of acquittal?

14 THE COURT: Yes. On inciting.

15 MS. KERKHOFF: Yes.

THE COURT: And can I ask: Do you disagree with my formulation of the elements in my proposed instructions, in other words, that -- and I suppose not just the language, but the interpretation of it that would require something beyond the conduct that's exhibited in this case.

MS. KERKHOFF: So the Government -- I don't disagree -- while we have some comments about the instructions overall, I don't disagree with the elements.

I do think, though, as it relates to conduct, thatconduct can include something more than words or gestures.

Conduct can include actions and participation designed to continue a riot.

I also believe that the way Count 1 was indicted and as exists, Count 1 states that the Defendants, in committing all of those and inciting and urging, that it did, in fact, cause -- and I think this is where the initial draft was wrong -- but that it did cause a riot.

A riot cannot -- in which more than $5,000 of damage or serious bodily -- grave danger of serious bodily alarm to property or persons.

The Government's position, in addition to the fact that conduct can include how individuals move and aid those that are engaging or urging this to continue, that their own conduct is continuing, that under aiding and abetting, as well as under Pinkerton theory, you cannot have a riot without participants.

And for those that are urging and inciting destruction, it needs actual people to have committed the act as charged in Count 1.

Count 1 is not an attempt. Count 1 is an actual riot. And so I do believe that, as it relates to the Defendants, that their conduct does fall within this.

23 And I think also --

THE COURT: So it is your position that -- and, like

25 I said, I haven't seen the last set of composites. But as to anyone in this case, let's assume knowledge of what's goingon.

Let's assume some ability to see stuff being thrown into the street, windows being broken, et cetera, and the remaining there; in other words, opportunities to leave and not leaving. So I'm assuming all that for purposes of argument.

What would distinguish urging and inciting from engaging --

10 MS. KERKHOFF: Engaging --

THE COURT: -- if that's all it takes to aid andabet the incitement of a riot? And wouldn't we, therefore,have multiplicitas counts?

MS. KERKHOFF: Your Honor, first, I would note that, as it relates to each of these Defendants, I think Defendant
Alexei Wood --

THE COURT: I mean these Defendants. Yes.

18 MS. KERKHOFF: I understand that.

19 I think Defendant Alexei Wood is, by words and20 gestures --

21 THE COURT: So let's put his stuff aside.

22 How about let's just talk about somebody --

MS. KERKHOFF: The other five.

THE COURT: -- who's not on audiotape woo-hooingwhile things get broken, just who -- your evidence is

THE COURT: But inciting requires proof of count.

14 1 physically present, has knowledge of what's going on, remains 2 with the group and gets to the end. 3 And assuming for purposes of argument that that 4 would be engaging, what's to distinguish that from inciting? 5 You can charge aiding and abetting anything. 6 And haven't we got multiplicitas counts if what 7 you're really saying is all you have to do is be there 8 because presence alone is incitement on that theory? 9 MS. KERKHOFF: And that's where I disagree with the 10 concept of presence alone, your Honor. This is not 11 individuals --12 THE COURT: I don't mean alone; I mean presence with 13 knowledge and intent. 14 MS. KERKHOFF: I understand that. 15 Except that the Court is saying they're present and 16 they didn't leave. It's more than that here. 17 We believe that both the boards and the compilations 18 show the purposeful attire, the purposeful bringing of 19 supplies, the purposeful efforts by each individual for the 20 role they will play, coupled with this is not in a park. 21 These are not people standing around making the 22 group bigger so that individuals in a park who are stationary 23 can go out and do things in a park. 24 Each of these Defendants actively moved, re-formed, 25 regrouped. There were instructions and commands being given. 15 1 They're re-forming and regrouping. 2 THE COURT: But am I wrong? I'm not going to see 3 anything that shows any of the individuals here giving 4

3 incitement. 4 MS. KERKHOFF: Right. 5 THE COURT: And what's the proof of incitement, 6 other than the things you've already told me --7 MS. KERKHOFF: That --8 THE COURT: -- the participation? 9 MS. KERKHOFF: The Government submits that that is 10 aiding and abetting those that are inciting the riot. A riot 11 isn't required to have incitement. 12 THE COURT: That's true. 13 MS. KERKHOFF: So if this riot has both engaging and 14 there is incitement in this riot, then you have to factor in, 15 does the Defendant's conduct fall within both? 16 Now, whether or not at the end of the day --17 THE COURT: How could anyone have attended and been 18 there straight through to the end with knowledge and intent 19 to participate and not have incited, on your theory? What 20 would be the difference between the two crimes? Nothing, 21 vou're saving. 22 MS. KERKHOFF: In this case, I think the jury has to 23 find their intent as it relates to incitement. 24 THE COURT: And isn't incitement some sort of 25 direction or leadership or causation act that causes conduct, 1 effort to promote? I mean, I can go back to the dictionary, 2 instructions and commands.

MS. KERKHOFF: I don't think you can say whether or not they were giving instructions --

THE COURT: But you don't have evidence that they did?

9 MS. KERKHOFF: That's right.

THE COURT: In other words, a person could not find beyond a reasonable doubt that even Mr. Wood gave 12 instructions and commands. We can talk about his role.

13 MS. KERKHOFF: Right.

> But the Government's point is the Court can say, Well, it's conduct that can apply to both. I think the jury has to find the elements.

The way this indictment is charged, this is a riot that actually occurred and caused damage in excess. And I think you can charge it as aiding and abetting and co-conspirators.

And I think their continued participation is conduct. Participation not just engaging in the riot, but as it related to those that were breaking.

24 Engaging doesn't require proof of damage. It 25 doesn't require any of those things for purposes of this which I was at a few weeks ago.

3 Well, a different question: Do you have cases for 4 anywhere else that distinguish between incitement and 5 participation in a riot?

You know, in my order finding that engaging was not a felony, you know, I spent some time on the legislative history.

To the extent that people who understood the difference between incitement and participation or engaging were talking, the intention was to punish incitement more strictly.

And, to me, it sounded like good old-fashioned leadership, in other words, either planning, though planning is not required, or some other form of urging, causation, promoting, sort of catalytic behavior.

Are you disagreeing with that? Or you're saying that, in the circumstances of this case, the conduct evidences an intention to catalyze, to lead, to promote an event and cause it to happen?

MS. KERKHOFF: So, in this case, unlike other historical -- I'll say the analysis of facts -- historical facts, the lack of spontaneity I think is very important in this case because I do think that, if this were more of a spontaneous riot, more people coming out into the streets and

1 And you stated you did not include all of those

That's correct.

4 Did any -- how many other purple backpacks did you

5 observe?

9

A. I can think of three.

7 For the images you included on the board, did the 8

other three purple backpacks include the same type of shoes

9 and clothing?

> A. No. They also were not the same backpack.

11 Q. And what features did you look at on the backpack

12 itself?

You can tell different backpacks by the straps, the 14 size, the shape, where the zippers are, the piping, the 15 lining, where pockets are located, the overall shape of the 16 bag.

17 So not only the bag in and of itself was distinct

18 and different than the other bags that Ms. Kerkhoff mentioned, but also the other objects in those frames, as she

20 mentioned: Shoes, pants, jacket, hat, hair, height, weight,

21 stature, gait of the individuals. You could separate those 22 things using those type of distinctions.

23 Thank you.

24 Now I want to direct your attention to what's been 25 marked as Government's Exhibit 316.

1 MS. KERKHOFF: At this time the Government offers

2 into evidence Government's Exhibit 316.

THE COURT: Any objection?

4 MR. LAZEROW: No objection.

5 THE COURT: No? I'll admit it.

(Whereupon, Government's Exhibit No. 316 was entered

7 into evidence.)

8 BY MS. KERKHOFF:

Q. And, Detective, showing you what's been marked as

10 Government's Exhibit No. 316, like the other compilation

11 boards, do each of the images here -- are they identified by 12 the video exhibit that was admitted into evidence?

13 A. Yes.

14 These are still images from videos? Q.

15 A. Yes.

16 And can you, looking at the top row from

17 Exhibit 123-O, describe for the record what the two colored 18 arrows are pointing to.

19 A. The blue arrow points to a hat that has a skull logo

20 on it.

21 The red arrow points to a backpack strap.

22 In the next two frames, there's also a green arrow

23 that points to what appears to be a woven, colorful backpack.

24 And with respect to -- and the location from 25 Government's Exhibit 123-O -- were you familiar, based on 1 your familiarity with the location, where that occurred?

2 Yes. That was just south of I Street and the park

3 that intersects at -- in between 11th and 12th and New York and I Street Northwest. There's a small triangular park

5 right there. That's where those images were filmed.

What's marked as No. 2 from Government's

7 Exhibit 148.44: Can you describe that still image.

8 That is an image that was obtained from the 9 intersection of 13th and I. There's a group of individuals

10 running northeast -- I'm sorry -- northwest into Franklin

11 Square from that intersection. And the green arrow is 12 pointing to a colorful, woven backpack.

And Exhibit 111?

14 That is a still shot from a video. And the area

15 that is filmed is at 14th and K as the group is moving past

16 the Crowne Plaza Hotel.

17 Q. And does that still image also depict three colored

18 arrows?

16

21

22

19 Yes. The blue arrow is pointing to a hat with what Α.

20 appears to be a white logo or white area in the front.

The red arrow points to a backpack strap.

22 And the green arrow points to a woven, colored

23 backpack.

Q. And, finally, what's marked as No. 4: This is 25 marked as Exhibits 108, 107 and 106.

Pemberton - DIRECT - By Ms. Kerkhoff

29

1 Have you had an opportunity to view each of those

2 video exhibits?

> Α Yes

Q. And what location does that show?

5 That is at the intersection of 12th and L. And

6 these images are taken right around -- just before and just

7 after the charge of the police line.

8 And where in relation -- Government's Exhibits 108,

107, 106: Do they capture different events or the same

10 events from a different angle?

11 Mostly the same event. All of these images were 12 captured within a moment or two of each other.

13 And did you also assist in preparing a video

14 compilation containing clips from admitted videos with images on Government's Exhibit No. 316? 15

A. Yes.

17 MS. KERKHOFF: At this time the Government offers

18 into evidence Government's Exhibit No. 154.

19 THE COURT: Any objection?

20 MS. JACQUES: No objection.

THE COURT: 154 is admitted.

1	MR. LAZEROW: Sure. I it was coming.	4
2	THE COURT: I overruled it because I didn't think	1 2	three segments, you said they were time-stamped?  A. Yes.
3	that was responsive to the cross involving the video itself	3	Q. What when you watched the video, did you observe
4	and further authentication of it.	4	an individual you recognized from the Metropolitan Police
5	But now you're asking him for, I guess, his opinion	5	Department on one of the videotapes?
6	about whether there had been edits.	6	A. Not right away. But, yes, eventually.
7	MS. KERKHOFF: What he observed.	7	Q. Later in the video?
8	THE COURT: Right.	8	A. Yes.
9	But to the extent that he wasn't at the meeting	9	Q. And who was that that you recognized?
10	well, first of all, I heard an objection.	10	A. Officer Adelmeyer.
11	Was there an objection?	11	Q. Was that Bryan Adelmeyer?
12	MS. WELETZ: Attorney Carrie Weletz.	12	A. Yes.
13	He is not an expert in video technology. So	13	Q. What steps did you take did you provide the video
14	THE COURT: He might be.	14	to Officer Adelmeyer for his review?
15	So what exactly would be his basis to say whether	15	A. Yes. I contacted Officer Adelmeyer. I had him come
16	there appeared to be edits and why wouldn't the witness who	16	in and review the video. He was able to corroborate that he
17	was present for the meeting have been the one to have said	17	was at that meeting and that the video actually and fairly
18	there appeared to be no edits?	18	represented what occurred at that meeting.
19	MS. KERKHOFF: Well, that is part of what he does to	19	Q. And why did you contact Officer Adelmeyer as you

21	But they cross-examined Officer Adelmeyer as to	21	A. To verify the accuracy and the validity and the
22	where the video was obtained from and what condition it was	22	veracity of that evidence, as I do with every
23	in when it was received.	23	MR. COHEN: I would object, your Honor. Hearsay.
24	Officer Adelmeyer did not have that information	24	THE COURT: And so you're objecting to everything
25	because he did not obtain the video.	25	he's already said or to what he's about to say?

17	Mr. Wood's whole body. Right?	17	he had the stick on the camera, but no microphone. Correct?
18	A. Yes. I could see Mr. Wood's whole body.	18	A. That's correct. Yes.
19	Q. You can't do that in front of his livestream, right,	19	Q. And then the backpack?
20	for the most part?	20	A. His backpack. Yes.
21	A. No.	21	Q. And, you know, I just skipped over it. I'm sorry.
22	Q. So during from the Logan Circle to the kettle,	22	I skipped over two.

MS. KERKHOFF: Your Honor, what I believe -- my intent is to ask the detective regarding the individual who appears on 140-A, the location there, that 100 is in between that, and that there are other places after that that the individuals with the black backpack and water bottle, which is how Mr. McCool called the person, the person with the backpack and water bottle, "the," where they appear, which it is our position required running around, moving, re-forming after they -- and basically after they had to go around the police lines.

So I think I can say the person with the black backpack, the water bottle, the hoodie with the white strings, because Mr. McCool --

THE COURT: Okay. So you believe you can.

But what you're proposing to do is identify or describe that person in your questions as the person with the black backpack with the water bottle with a white hoodie and white strings?

MS. KERKHOFF: Correct. And ask if there were any other individuals, having been shown No. 100 by Mr. McCool in slow motion -- any other individuals that, when he observed the videos, who matched that description.

what the Government didn't show you."

THE COURT: So if the point -- and you agree -- of Mr. McCool's cross is simply that the same guy they've been pointing out in other places is walking past the Starbucks in a less-than-excited way I think a few minutes after the destruction --

7 MS. KERKHOFF: About a minute after. 8 THE COURT: -- by himself, all he's doing is 9 pointing out the same stuff that Detective Pemberton has 10 pointed out, but other facts, other information. "This is

So in terms of rebuttal, I agree that you -- or redirect -- would be able to ask whether, "In the following footage, is there a person with a black backpack and a water bottle?"

16 "Yes."

"And do you see the individual?"

18 I don't think you actually need to go there with 19 those semantics. And why bother? Because everybody knows 20 what you're talking about.

But -- "And do you see a person in a black this with a black backpack and water bottle now dodging around the" -or, "What's he doing now?" and, "What's he doing there?"

24 In other words, if the point is to complete the 25 picture as to what -- you could have done that in your direct case. You could have done that on direct of Detective Pemberton. You obviously chose not to. I assume that that footage wasn't that important to you.

But you can redirect with other footage. I just don't agree that you get to change the way in which you're asking the questions. I don't think there's a need for it.

The jury can figure out who they're looking at. If they want to scour these videos for another person who is wearing a black backpack and a water bottle in it, they can certainly do it.

I don't think we need you to elicit from Detective Pemberton an opinion that this is the person rather than a person.

14 MS. KERKHOFF: So the only distinction that I would 15 make there is that the Government was -- had to -- and 16 Detective Pemberton -- had to say "a person." We couldn't 17 even say anything close to "the."

When the Court has described what's come out, the Court has described the same person. And, I mean, I get what the inference is, but we had to do this kind of --

THE COURT: I think it's coming in fine for you. The jury's going to be able to connect the dots and give whatever weight they want to give to the fact that these are people who look very similar in appearance and that the way the jury is going to have to decide whether they give weight,

I guess, to the exhibits and the testimony is by looking at 2 the similarities themselves.

MS. KERKHOFF: Understood.

4 THE COURT: So I would say, rather than "the 5 person," let's stick with "a person." And I'm sure they'll 6 understand the point of your redirect.

7 MS. KERKHOFF: Yes, your Honor.

8 THE COURT: Can we bring the detective back, please.

9 MS. KERKHOFF: Yes.

13 THE COURT: Did we make any progress on fixing that 14 chair over there?

15 THE DEPUTY CLERK: I called back. They said they 16 would come back.

THE COURT: Detective, please come back to the 17 18 witness stand.

19 THE WITNESS: Yes, your Honor.

22 THE COURT: Good afternoon, ladies and gentlemen. I 23 hope you had a good lunch break.

I don't have any evidence that he ever displayed it to a law enforcement officer.  Q. As a matter of fact, in all your investigation, as you understand it, he never used it?  A. I'll testify to the fact he never used it in that manner to law enforcement, that he never displayed it to a law enforcement officer. Yes. That's correct.  Q. You're aware that media personnel are allowed to be anywhere that the public is; correct?  A. Correct. Yes.  Q. And there's only two caveats to that.  They can't they can't hinder an investigation.  Right?  A. That's correct.  Q. And they can't pose a safety hazard?  A. That's right.  Q. Okay. A. No. But that doesn't surprise me.  Q. Okay. Now, you get the extraction report to assist in your investigation. Correct?  A. Yes, sir.  Q. And you do so to try to find out more about the individual that's being investigated. Correct?  A. Sort of generically speaking, yes. I'm looking for evidence to show inculpatory information about the crime.  Q. That was actually going to be my next question.  So did Mr. Wood's phone, the extraction data, provide you information about Mr. Wood coming to the demonstration?  MS. KERKHOFF: Objection, your Honor.  THE COURT: Counsel, please approach.  (Whereupon, the following proceedings were had at side-bar outside the presence of the jury:)  THE COURT: So what's the objection?  MS. KERKHOFF: I believe we're eliciting hearsay at this point. He's trying to extract information from the phone made by Mr. Wood himself, what the statements on the phone were.  THE COURT: So, in other words, it's a hearsay

Now re-calling United States versus Jennifer  Armento, 2017 CF2 1193, et al. THE COURT: So good afternoon. Everybody is here. Can I just ask: Ms. Kerkhoff was saying something about witness scheduling problems.  Do you need to put somebody on now just to get them over and done with?  MS. KERKHOFF: We were, except the defense is agreeing. We're just going to stipulate and admit the processing portion of the photos. We can do that tomorrow, so we don't have to break this up any further. But that was	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22	your clerk to upload it to the portal. I'll make a separate folder to upload it to the portal. I can walk her through that tonight as soon as I get back to the office.  THE COURT: Okay. If not that, then some other solution for just orienting me to what I've already seen.  MS. KERKHOFF: Yes.  THE COURT: But you're going to refocus on MS. KERKHOFF: Yes, your Honor.  THE COURT: So what realistically are we looking at for the defense case? Have you all thought through how long you think the defense cases are going to take?  MR. LAZEROW: My sense is that it's going to be a half day or less, your Honor.  THE COURT: I mean, for the whole have you all sort of put your heads together and thought about how long you think everybody's case is going to take? I was thinking half a day per Defendant. But MS. KROPF: It will not be. THE COURT: Something less? Yes? You're shaking your head for less, Ms. Weletz. Thank you for coming back, by the way. MS. WELETZ: No problem.

I wanted to take a minute to talk to you about timing. I know that you all have been so committed to being here on time, we so appreciate the commitment you have all made to giving yourself time, especially in this busy time of year.  I just had a very good discussion with the lawyers.  I think the prediction I was making the other day about you all deliberating by Monday is a likely goal; and it could even be sooner. But we'll see.  I can't promise because everybody here has a right to proceed through this trial and exercise all their rights.  And it's important that we honor that.  So I really do appreciate your time, your presence, the fact that you've been on time every day and the fact that you're sticking with us.  But I just want to say, based on my conversations, we're doing all right on time.	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20	our eye out for a person wearing a white helmet with a red cross. You see a person wearing a white helmet with a red cross there? A. Yes, I do. Q. You see the officer's hand over there on the left? A. Yes. Q. He's holding his baton. Is that right? A. He's holding a baton. Q. And the officers or the voices we hear are saying, "Move." Correct? A. Yes. Q. They're not saying, "Stop"? A. No. They're saying, "Move." Q. Okay. They're not saying, "Go home." Right? A. Not in this video. No.

THE COURT: And so I think there's relevance to it.

But can I just ask: Do you really need to show him

MR. LAZEROW: I have two more. That's all I'm going

400 clips of people not behaving well and ask him his opinion

2017, his mindset, this detective's mindset, was of -- was such that he was going to investigate in a way that would automatically point to guilt as opposed to investigating it people were in fact protesting properly under the First

I mean -- but okay. they get here. 3 3 Ms. Hodge, can you let everybody who's still here I'm going to allow it. 4 4 know that they shouldn't come back until 10:30. We're going to stop now. 5 5 THE DEPUTY CLERK: 10:30. (Whereupon, the following proceedings were had in 6 6 THE COURT: And we'll make calls to the ones we open court:) 7 7 THE COURT: So I'm overruling the objection. don't get ahold of. 8 8 And what we're going to do is have you all come back Thank you. 9 9 at 10:00. We will begin at 10:00. I appreciate your So Twitter? Tell me exactly. 10 patience with that bench conference that went on for a little 10 MR. LAZEROW: Right. 11 11 while. So he has a lot of comments about false narratives 12 And like I said, I feel optimistic about our timing. 12 by disingenuous activists who want to blame the police for 13 I want you to also. And I will see you tomorrow at 10:00 13 everything that happens. And there's all kinds of specific 14 14 examples. 15 15 Thank you very much. He --16 16 (Whereupon, the jury exited the courtroom at 4:42 THE COURT: So you're actually going to be eliciting 17 p.m. and the following proceedings were had:) 17 from him specific examples of what he says is false? 18 18 THE COURT: Sir, I'll excuse you until 10:00 a.m. MR. LAZEROW: Yes. 19 19 MS. KERKHOFF: In this case? tomorrow morning. Don't discuss your testimony with anyone. 20 20 THE WITNESS: Thank you, your Honor. THE COURT: Hold on, Ms. Kerkhoff. I'm talking to 21 21 (Witness excused.) him. You're not asking him questions right now. 22 22 THE COURT: Hang on one second. MR. LAZEROW: We are going to -- he has comments 23 Mr. Lazerow, I think you're the last 23 about leftist goons. 24 24 cross-examination. How long do you think? His Twitter page -- he is a follower of all kinds of 25 25 MR. LAZEROW: Well, I'd like to say it'll be 30, 45 right-wing entities. He has liked Project Veritas and his 225 1 1 founder, James O'Keefe, on Twitter. minutes, but my sense is there's going to be more bench 2 2 conferences, your Honor. He has liked the person who I believe we will be 3 THE COURT: Well, how about work it out? You've 3 able to elicit gave him the video from Media Research Center 4 just heard my rulings, so I'm not sure why there have to be that Ms. Weletz talked about today. 5 5 bench conferences. Can you tell me anything else we're going He gave an interview to an organization called One 6 to have to discuss? 6 American News Network, which has a very pro-Donald Trump 7 MR. LAZEROW: Sure. There's a lot more bias to go 7 support, talking about the false narratives. 8 8 into, your Honor. THE COURT: So when you say false narratives, is 9 THE COURT: How about itemize it for me now --9 he -- can you be more specific about the statements about 10 10 MR. LAZEROW: Okay. false narratives? 11 11 THE COURT: -- as in, you want to show a series of MR. LAZEROW: Right. 12 clips. 12 So we have in Logan Circle -- I want to tie this up 13 13 for the Court. Everyone, please have a seat. 14 You want to show a series of clips to go into his 14 THE COURT: I'm asking you a specific question, 15 opinion about how police acted that day. 15 which is: Tell me what words are used that are specific to 16 MR. LAZEROW: I have two more of those. 16 this case. 17 THE COURT: Then what? 17 MR. LAZEROW: He talks about Black Lives Matter, 18 18 MR. LAZEROW: We're going to spend a lot of time on pushing false narratives. 19 his Twitter feed. 19 THE COURT: Black Lives Matter? 20 20 MS. KERKHOFF: I will object to that. MR. LAZEROW: Yeah. I'm going to tie it up for you. 21 21 THE COURT: And so specifically --THE COURT: Because I haven't seen that much of a MR. LAZEROW: I'm just trying to get to -- he has a 22 22 connection between that organization and this group --23 23 MR. LAZEROW: I'm going to show -lot of comments about false narratives by disingenuous 24 activists. 24 THE COURT: -- yet.

Black Lives Matter." for you to raise it with me outside the presence of the jury 3 THE COURT: So you're saying that he has a 3 so we don't have them sitting in the jury box. That is my 4 4 specific -- I'm going to want to see the text of whatever it goal. 5 5 is you're offering from Twitter to the extent that it's about MR. LAZEROW: You know, your Honor, I apologize. I 6 6 Black Lives Matter, because that's not sounding like an thought these items go clearly to bias. So that was my --7 7 opinion about these folks. That's sounding like an opinion THE COURT: Any other topics? 8 8 MR. LAZEROW: There's -- I've already told you he about something else that could be used to inflame or 9 9 prejudice. liked a tweet by James O'Keefe, the founder of Project 10 I would like to see the specifics. 10 Veritas, and the media research person -- Media Research 11 11 MR. LAZEROW: Okay. We can make a submission Center person. 12 tonight and we can talk about it tomorrow. Is that 12 I believe that's it. 13 THE COURT: That's all since this case or before? 13 acceptable? 14 14 THE COURT: How about just show it to me? MR. LAZEROW: Some of these items predate the case. 15 15 Some of these items were in November -- October, November. MR. LAZEROW: Do you want to see my cross? 16 THE COURT: No. 16 THE COURT: So I'm going to want to know about that 17 MR. LAZEROW: I don't understand. 17 and how the timing is relevant to this case. 18 18 THE COURT: I just want to see the quotes, the MR. LAZEROW: It all goes to his biases, your Honor. 19 19 THE COURT: I can't make that decision until I Twitter. You don't have screens of it? 20 20 MR. LAZEROW: Oh, yeah. I do. Sorry. actually know the facts. 21 21 THE COURT: That's kind of what I meant. I wasn't MR. LAZEROW: Okay. We will. 22 22 THE COURT: So, Ms. Kerkhoff, to the extent that I'm asking to see your cross. 23 MR. LAZEROW: You can keep these. 23 hearing that there are statements by him that are either 24 THE COURT: If you'd like to forward them to my 24 against this group or in favor of the diametric opposition to 25 25 chambers, you can do that. this group and whatever characterizations have been made 229 227 1 1 That's okay. I'm just saying I'd like to see the -about it, I think that that will probably be relevant. 2 if you're going to be crossing about statements he made on I'm not agreeing that Black Lives Matter has a 3 3 Twitter about false narratives, I would like more specific relationship to this group in such a way that I would allow 4 quotations of what you're offering, because if it's about his characterizations of Black Lives Matter to come in. I 5 5 Black Lives Matter, I'm not so sure that that's relevant to think that's potentially inflammatory and not relevant. 6 6 his testimony here. MS. KERKHOFF: If I could just state our position. 7 If it's about these folks or this case, then that 7 I think the vast majority -- first of all, there are 8 would be more relevant. So that's all I'm saying. I just 8 no statements about this group or this case. There are no 9 want to see it. 9 statements about this case to my knowledge on his Twitter 10 10 MR. LAZEROW: We think it's going to be more feed. 11 11 relevant whether --So these are broader -- virtually all, I believe, 12 THE COURT: Just show it to me, Mr. Lazerow. I can 12 predate January 20th, 2017, before he was assigned. 13 13 I would also note the Government does -rule. I can't rule without seeing it and knowing it. 14 And so you arguing it now: Not a lot of help. 14 THE COURT: Can I just see them first and then I'll 15 MR. LAZEROW: I'm confused whether you want me to 15 hear argument? 16 16 MS. KERKHOFF: Sure. submit it to you tonight. 17 THE COURT: I just want to see it one way or the 17 THE COURT: I'm going to ask you all to be here at 18 18 another. 9:30, and I'll get started as soon as I can. Whatever I can 19 MR. LAZEROW: Can I submit it tonight, your Honor? 19 see about specific statements about false narratives, I'm 20 20 THE COURT: Yes. really not going to speculate about what they might say or 21 21 MR. LAZEROW: Thank you. what they might mean or when they might have been issued. I 22 THE COURT: So what else? What other biased stuff? 22 want to know actually what they are. 23 23 MR. LAZEROW: We've already talked about PPMS, So that would help me. 24 24 I'll see you at 9:30. Thank you. obviously, your Honor. 25 THE COURT: Whenever there's a prediction we might 25 MS.
