

Exhibit "A"

FCI McKean

INMATE BULLETIN

There continues to be a significant increase of contraband being discovered in books and magazines by the mail room staff. Due to the rise in attempted introduction of contraband into the institution, all books, newspapers, and magazines will be returned to sender until further notice.

These measures are being implemented to ensure the safety of staff, inmates, and the secure orderly running of the institution.

A. Newman, Warden

8/26/2024

Date